

How to Get Help for Abuse, Neglect or Other Rights Violations

People with Developmental Disabilities have the right to be free from abuse and neglect!

FOR EMERGENCIES: CALL 911

ALL CRIMES

To report a crime, call your local police.

Maryland Crime Victims Resource Center (MCVRC) helps victims during criminal proceedings. MCVRC can support you in many ways including:

- Telling you about your rights.
- Giving you a companion during a court trial.
- Helping you with legal and money issues resulting from the crime.
- Providing counseling and peer support services.

To get help as a victim, contact MCVRC:

RIGHTS VIOLATIONS

If your rights have been violated by a Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA) Service Provider Agency or Staff:

1. Contact someone you trust and ask for support.
2. You or your support person should contact your Coordinator of Community Services (CCS). Everyone receiving services from DDA has a CCS. Your CCS should help if you have been harmed. If you don't know who your CCS is, ask your DDA regional office:
 - Central Region: 1-877-874-2494
 - Southern Region: 1-888-207-2479
 - Eastern Shore: 1-888-219-0478
 - Western MD: 1-888-791-0193
3. Contact Disability Rights Maryland (DRM) at (410) 727-6352 ext. 0 or 1-800-233-7201.

Prevent harm to others by reporting abuse, neglect and rights violations: It is important to report rights abuses so that state agencies can investigate and require provider agencies to prevent further harm.

1. Office of Health Care Quality: Enforces DDA rules for DDA providers. (410) 402-8188 or (877) 402-8220.
2. Maryland Board of Nursing: Enforces rules for nurses, certified nursing assistants and medical technicians. (410) 585-1900 or (888) 202-9861.
3. Office of the Attorney General - Medicare Fraud Control Unit: Prosecutes Medicaid fraud, abuse and neglect of vulnerable adults. (888) 743-0023 or email MedicaidFraud@oag.state.md.us
